

Welcome to the HUS Webinar PowerPoint!

HUS Webinars are recorded for site coordinators to review if they are unable to attend in person. The recording, accompanying power point and any handouts are also an excellent resource for coordinators to use to present to relevant webinar content to home visitors.

DISCLAIMER: This presentation is intended solely for the purpose of information and reference. It is provided to you on the understanding that its contents are confidential and proprietary. The material within this presentation is not to be duplicated, reproduced, altered, or redistributed without prior consent from HIPPY International. Any unauthorized use, reproduction, or alteration is strictly prohibited. Please note that the information contained herein is subject to change without notice. While every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy and completeness of the content, we do not guarantee its entirety or reliability. Viewer discretion is advised, and any actions taken based on the information presented in this document are at your own risk. By accessing this presentation, you agree to abide by these terms and conditions. If you are not the intended recipient or have received this document in error, please notify the sender immediately and delete this presentation from your system. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

OBJECTIVES

- Recognize why cultural traditions and family voice are essential
- Identify ways families can help shape group meetings
- Use the Group Meeting Planning Form to intentionally include family voice
- Apply one practical change to make your next group meeting more family-centered and culturally responsive.

CONNECTING

Silent reflection.....

Where do families
have the most voice
in your group
meetings?

CONNECTING

In Breakout Groups:

- Introduce yourself
- Share your program and state
- Share your response for “Where do families have the most voice in your group meetings?”
- 2 minutes per person

CONNECTING

Chat Waterfall...

Where do families
have the most voice
in your group
meetings?

Partnering with families to shape and showcase what's meaningful to them.

Talethia O. Edwards

Advocate, Coalition Builder, Strategist

H.A.N.D UP Project

Culture at the Center: Where Families Lead

- Why Cultural Traditions & Family Voice Matter
- What It Looks Like to Let Families Shape What's Meaningful
- Partnering With Families To Showcase what Matters

Planning with Family Voice

 GROUP PLANNING FORM

To enter information you must download and save to your own device

Coordinator Name:	List Names of those involved in planning:
Meeting Date:
Topic:
Speaker:
Location:
General Purpose: The general purpose can be a broad statement that describes the topic of the training/workshop. For example, "Participants will learn to plan a community service project", or "Participants will understand the basics of dental health for all ages".
Learning Objectives: 1. The Learning Objectives describe and define what you expect from learners, under what conditions, and at what level. For example, if the general purpose is "Participants will learn to plan a community service project", the specific learning objectives could be for participants to 1) Understand the importance of community service, 2) Identify community needs, 3) Develop a project plan to meet one need in their community.
Refreshments:	Person Responsible:

Revised 2024 1

Group Meeting Planning Form

A tool for shared planning

- Clarifies meeting purpose
- Centers family voice
- Guides reflection and next steps

Planning with Family Voice

In Breakout Groups:

- Where do families already have a voice in this meeting?
- Where could families have more input?
- How can cultural traditions show up in the meeting?
- What is one change you could try?

Igniting Minds!

Chat Waterfall:

- Where do families already have a voice in the group meeting?

Igniting Minds!

Chat Waterfall:

- Where do families already have a voice in the group meeting?
- Where could families have more input?

Igniting Minds!

Chat Waterfall:

- Where do families already have a voice in the group meeting?
- Where could families have more input?
- How can cultural traditions show up in the group meeting?

Resources and Reminders

- Webinars
- Indie Connects

- Upcoming events
- Newsletter Archive

- HIPPY Library
- Webinar Archive

Don't forget to like and follow our social media

